SOME RESISTANCE OFFERED

GRANGERS WEAKENED BY THE WHEAT MARKET.

New York, Aug. 20.-Yesterday's profit-taking was in continued evi-dence in today's stock market. Resistance was offered to the decline until the fears aroused by the renewed flight in the wheat market weakened the grangers and turned prices in general downward. United States Steel, preferred, was determinedly supported in the early dealings, in spite of the fur-ther reports of unchanged conditions in that trade. Traders are suspicious of a speculative origin for some of the damaging reports in the steel trade developments and profess to detect a wery large uncovered interest in United States Steel preferred. These factors have a deterrent effect on plans to attack the stock by short sales.

Pennsylvania also was conspicuously

Stock Quota firm and the anthracite carriers show-ed good resistance under the favor-able influence of a reported agreement on a plan for the settlement of differon a plan for the settlement of differences between miners and operators in that trade. A violent break in Metrepolitan Securities, which carried Metropolitan Street Railway down with it, gave added force to the reaction, and the late weakening of the grangers caused the whole list to give way. The leading grain carriers all lost in the neighborhood of a point. A fractional raily was inferrupted by the further drop in Metropolitan Securities and the closing was irregular. The bank statement furnished no surprises. The moderate expansion made up an important part of the increased reimportant part of the increased receipts, but there was a sufficient cash increase to more than keep pace with the additional requirement, thus adding $882,775 to the already abundant

Steel Situation. The stock market this week has weak, but reactions have been resisted and overcome by the general course of prices, which has been upwards. This was in the face of some heavy selling to take profits and against the senti-ment of a large part of the professional operators, who have looked for a reac-tion. Some of the week's news has offered a rather formidable prospect to holders of securities, but this was also ignored and offerings of stocks were steadily absorbed up to the higher level attained by prices. The crop news of the week has been distinctly unfavorable to stocks, although the opinion of the outlook in the financial district has not gone the length of the disastrous conditions reported in the grain markets and effective in the excited speculation there. The material reduc tion in the wheat crop which has resulted in the damage from rust, however, is generally admittel and the extent to which this may go is recognized to be a factor for future determination. Even more importance is attached to the corn crop for its prom ise of an effective offset to the unprom-

Total sales of bonds, par value, $1,

Foreign shortages of wheat are looked to to stimulate a large demand for corn, so that a large crop of that cereal will play an important part in the year's prosperity of the country. The weeks misgivings over the prog-ress of that crop was therefore a seri-ous factor in the stock market. Reports of the deterioration from lack of moisture were received with much anxlety and the danger still to come of harm from frosts to corn was a re straining influence on speculation.

Review of the Week.

The gravity of the situation in the steel trade is also freely conceded. Price cuts already authorized in that trade have offered a basis for industrious calculation as to the direct effect on earnings of the United States Steel corporation. Beyond that direct result is the effect to be expected in inducing a waiting attitude on the part of the consumers whose indisposition to make commitments on a falling market or with a chance for lower prices will naturally follow. The purpose of the United States Steel corporation to prevent a profit to the Pennsylvania company from its acquisition of steel billets at a reduction of $4 a ton from the association price is clearly indicated and the purpose of that company to contest the market for wire productions is avowed. Meantime the existence of pools and agreements from maintaining prices of other finished steel products is felt to be menaced, with the possible exception of steel rails.

While this condition has not been without some effect, although a moderate one, in the United States stocks and those of some of the independent steel companies, the sympathetic effect on the general market has been surprisingly small. The same was true of the labor situation which was not Review of the Week.

on the general market has been surprisingly small. The same was true of the labor situation which was not promising. Trouble in the New York trades was extended and the meat packers strike was still a subject of daily attention and discussion. That prices of stocks should continue to make headway against a combination of disturbing influences in this way has been a cause of surprise and of some suspicion of manipulation by parties of professional operators. Evidence of manipulation in some cases has been rather flagrant, in fact, but the success of this manipulation was in itself proof

Friendley small. lect your bills, we certainly would not be paying out money to advertise.

We advertise because we want your claims for collection. Our ability to make collections where all others have failed has enabled us to build up the largest collection business in the world. This ad is sure to bring many claims to our offices for collection, and we are just as sure to collect these claims and make money in commissions thereon.
